

Why in the world would you want to stop a great thing like XM radio. I love and other people i know love it, its brand new technology and its some of the best ever. You need to focus on more important issues like           ism, health care, stopping abortion and other similar matters. Please leave sattelite radio alone, it would be foolish to get rid of it.